FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“London to Host ASIS Security Conference & Exhibition in 2012”

Brussels, 13 April 2011 –ASIS International has announced that its 11th European Security Conference & Exhibition will take place in London, UK on 15-17 April 2012. This event follows a very successful 10th European Security Conference & Exhibition held this month in Vienna, Austria.

The 2012 Conference & Exhibition will kick off on Sunday 15 April with the President’s Reception. Over the following 2 days, delegates will be able to attend 33 high-level educational sessions divided over 3 parallel tracks. In addition, the conference will feature 3 keynote presentations.

The 11th European Security Conference & Exhibition will also include:

- Sessions on certification, convergence and standards;
- Sessions for Chief Security Officers (CSOs) organised by the CSO Roundtable of ASIS International;
- An enlarged exhibition featuring the latest in security technology and services;
- Unrivalled networking opportunities at the President’s Reception, business lunches and networking breaks.

Vendors seeking opportunities to gain exposure and to raise the visibility of their brand, products, or services can contact the EMEA office of ASIS International for more information on exhibiting, sponsorship packages and sponsored speaking slots.

The call for presentations for the Conference will open by the beginning of May.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the premier association for professionals responsible for security, with more than 37,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry’s leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
