FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“ASIS International Announces Call for Presentations for 10th European Security Conference”

Brussels, 12 May 2010 –ASIS International has announced that it is now accepting abstracts for presentation for its 2011 European Security Conference.

The 10th ASIS International European Security Conference will take place in Vienna, Austria on 3-6 April 2011.

This annual conference is now firmly established as one of the main events for security professionals, corporate executives, consultants and government officials who want to deepen their understanding on a wide range of security issues.

It will feature three keynote sessions and more than 30 high-level educational sessions divided over three parallel tracks. The Conference will also include the SRVP Welcome Reception, sessions for Chief Security Officers (CSOs) organised by the CSO Roundtable of ASIS International, and the President’s reception.

The 10th ASIS International European Security Conference will address a full spectrum of topics in security management such as: supply chain security, loss prevention, hotel security, intellectual property, maritime piracy, terrorism, executive protection, internal theft and fraud, competitive intelligence, brand protection, physical security, cyber security, investigations, due diligence and global business issues.

Abstracts for presentations can be submitted through <http://asis.confex.com/asis/euro2011/cfp.cgi>. The deadline for submissions is 15 October 2010. ASIS International is inviting representatives from both the public and private sector to contribute.

Vendors seeking opportunities to gain exposure and to raise the visibility of their brand, products, or services can go on the event website or contact the European office of ASIS International for more information on exhibiting, sponsorship packages and sponsored speaking slots.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the pre-eminent organisation for professionals responsible for security, with more than 37,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry's leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
